Hello Jo!

My name is Rachel, I work for SirsiDynix; a library software company. At SirsiDynix, we believe in the power of libraries and the impact that they have on their communities.

I recently read about your work on data visualization and was impressed! I don't doubt that your knowledge in this field has helped your library excel. This is also a topic that a lot of people would love to learn more about and benefit from!

At SirsiDynix, we host webinars to teach librarians more about the changes in the industry and what they can do have an even greater impact on their communities. Would you be willing to present a webinar on this project that you have undertaken and teach other librarians about this field? It would be a 30-45 minute presentation. I will take care of all of the tech and make sure that you feel comfortable and confident through the entire preparation and presentation process.

Here are some examples of some similar types of webinars that we have done in the past:

Please let me know if you have any questions and if you would be interested in sharing your knowledge with us!

Thanks!

Hi Rachel,

Apologies for the late response! I am interested, but I do have a few questions about things like content and topic, timing, and whether my Visualizing the Future Symposia colleagues could join as co-presenters.

Are you available for a call Tuesday 12/17 at 2:30PM or Thursday 12/19 at 11AM? I can set up a WebEx room, or we can chat through phone if that works best for you.

Thank you,

-Jo
